

Expense Reimbursement System

- An Employee can login
 - An Employee can view the Employee Homepage
 - An Employee can logout
 - An Employee can submit a reimbursement request
 - An Employee can upload an image of his/her receipt as part of the reimbursement request
 - An Employee can view their pending reimbursement requests
 - An Employee can view their resolved reimbursement requests
 - An Employee can view their information
 - An Employee can update their information
 - An Employee receives an email when one of their reimbursement requests is resolved (optional)
-
- A Manager can login
 - A Manager can view the Manager Homepage
 - A Manager can logout
 - A Manager can approve/deny pending reimbursement requests
 - A Manager can view all pending requests from all employees
 - A Manager can view images of the receipts from reimbursement requests
 - A Manager can view all resolved requests from all employees and see which manager resolved it
 - A Manager can view all Employees
 - A Manager can view reimbursement requests from a single Employee
-
-
- A Manager can register an Employee, which sends the Employee an email with their username and temp password (optional)
 - An Employee can reset their password (Optional - tied with above functional requirement)

Technologies:

- Java 1.8
- Servlets
- JDBC
- PL/SQL
- HTML
- CSS
- Javascript
- Bootstrap
- AJAX
- JUnit
- log4j

Environment:

- Tomcat Server
- Oracle 11g Database (Or whatever your RDS is)
- Eclipse/Spring Tools Suite
- SQL Developer

